

A Bible Study on God's Global Purpose

2015 Revised Edition

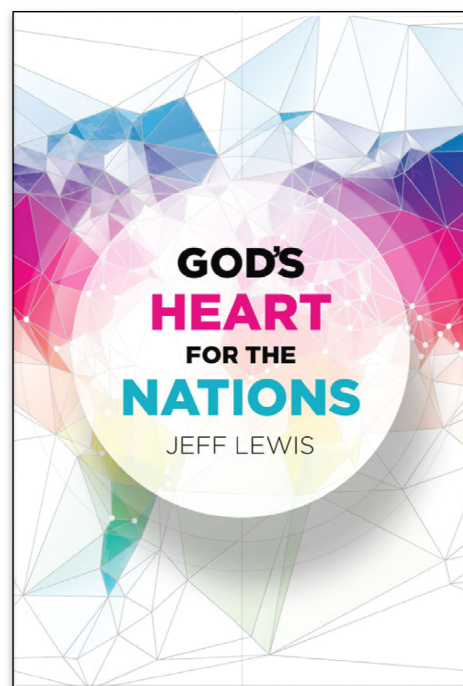

Somehow it's one of the most overlooked themes in Scripture. Yet we see God's global purpose from the very beginning. He desires to redeem the nations to Himself. He actively pursues worshipers from all the peoples of the earth who will give Him the glory due His name!

God's Heart for the Nations, first published in 2002, invites you to explore the themes of God's blessing and God's global purpose and discover how the two are connected and woven together. The eight-lesson study will help you probe and meditate on Scripture, apply to your life what you are learning, and intercede for the nations. Work through it on your own or discuss it with a group.

Author Jeff Lewis is a global activist connecting followers of Christ with His global mandate. Jeff is Assistant Professor of Intercultural Studies at California Baptist University. He also teaches and consults with churches and other groups about seamlessly integrating God's heart for the nations into their lives and ministries.

"God's Heart for the Nations is the best inductive, biblically based study I know that gets to the core of God's purposes to advance His Kingdom around the globe. Jeff Lewis does a masterful job at walking you through life-altering study and prayer. A must for any serious believer, small group, or Sunday school class." – Greg Parsons, Frontier Ventures (formerly U.S. Center for World Mission)
